A BAD LEG OF A VERY DANGEROUS NATURE cured by Holloway's Dintment and Pills.—Mrs. Poole, of No. 2 Mermaid-court, Borough, had suffered for a very long period with a dreadful sore leg, which baffled the skill of the most eminent surgeons in private practice, as well as in the Hospitals and Dispensaries under whose treatment she had been; none of whom, after repeated trials, could effect the least good. The use of Holloway's Pills and Oliment alone has been the means of curing this extraordinary bad leg, to the wonder and astonishment of all who have seen it, as Mrs. Poole is a person far advanced in years.—Sold by all the venders of Medicines throughout the British Empire; also, by those of the United States, at 35 cts. Sots. and $149 each.—Wholesale, at Mr. Horsey's, 84 Maiden lane, New York, and by the proprietor, 244 Strand, London.

DR. L. MORTAMORE WOULD SAY TO THOSE WHO P.R. L. MORTAMORE WOULD SAY TO THOSE WHO have contracted diseases, "Cura ut voless," that is, "take care of your health." I have devoted many years to my profession, and have treated successfully thousands of patients. Those who wish to consult me on those complaints, can do so, free of charge, from S.A. M. to 9 P. M. (Sundays excepted.) If you value your health, you will avoid those knaves who unblushingly tell you "that they only can cure you, and that their one kind of medicine is all that is necessary for disease in all its forms." Persons whose health has been ruined by these egotists, call upon me daily.

DR. RALPH, AUTHOR OF THE "PRACTICAL PRItotal Treatise." &c. Office hours, 9 to 12 A. M., and 6 to 9 P. M., (Sussiay excepted.) No. 63 Houston street, near Wooster street. From the uncommon medical advantages the author has enjoyed, among which he would instance having resided several years in Paris, for the express purpose of studying particular diseases, followed by a long and very extensive practice, in this speciality, he can, without hesitation, promise, even in the most severe and compulcated cases—as secondary diseases, strictures, &c.—nore certain, safe, and radical cures than can be obtained from any other source in America. Those who apply in the earlier stages of diseases, will be gratified by the case and rapidity of the cure, which is often effected in a very few days. Separate waiting rooms are previded. For treatment by letter, address bux 509 Post Office. P. S.—Dr. Ralph would add, that besides his special practice in the diseases of the positiourinary system, to which he has so long devoted particular attention, he attends, as far as possible, to general practice in which, in many diseases, his treatment is usually successful.

Ded and Disappointed.—Dr. C. is not a martician. He uses no magic influence, nor does he bet $1,000 or $5,000 that he can cure his patients quicker than any other man in the world. He thinks betting should be confined to horse racing, and considers it rather beneath the dignity of a medical man. No sensible person can be deceived by such silly pretensions and egotism. Dr. Convers' invites all persons who are convinced that there is no magic in medical to call at his effice if they are seeking proper medical nid.
Those who have impredently contracted disease, and require a speedy and permanent cure, will here find a qualised physician, with an experience of twenty years in this branch of the profession, which gives him great advantage over the mere tyro in the healing art. Genellemen, strangers, seamen and citizens, who appreciate, and would seeme scientific treatment in their malay, will easily find this office, and will meet no one but the Dr., in whom you can place the utmost confidence, without fear of violation or exposure. Office, 13 Chambers street, between Chatham

DR. LA CROIX'S PRIVATE MEDICAL TREATISE—Fifteenth Edition. By M. B. La Croix, M. D., Albany, N. Y. Chapest hook ever published: 220 nages, and 190 non plates, on the Physiology of Marrings, and the secret inficinities and disorders of youth and materity, resulting from excesses which destroy the physical and mental powers, all diseases arising from indiscretion, with plain and simple rules by which all persons can cure themselves without mercury, with the author's observations on marriage, its duties and disqualifications, and their remedies; with colored lithographs, illustrating the anatomy and physiology, and diseases of the reproductive organs of both sexes, their structure, uses, and functions. It contains many important inits to those contemplating matrimony, which will overcome objections against marriage; none, however, should take this important step without first consulting its pages. It treats of all diseases of femiles, whother married or single. Strangers who require medical aid, before consulting any doctor, ought to know whother their cases are properly understood by those whom they employ, and thus guard against the important of quackery, so prevalent in populous cities. Dr. La Croix is a legally qualified physician, and for the past twenty years has been duly consulted upon the different diseases upon which his book treats, personally as well as by letter. Any person sending twenty five centain a letter, postpaid, will receive one copy by mail, free of postage, or five copies for $1. Address Dr. M. B. La CROIX, 56 Beaver street, Albany, N. Y. THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMparion.—By Dr. A. M. Mauriceau, Professor of Diseases of Women.—Twentieth edition, Ismo, pp. 250—Price, 81. Years of sunfering, of physical and mental anguish to many an affectionate wife, and pecuniary difficulties to the humbard, might have been spared by a timely possession of this work. It is intended especially for the married, or those contemplating marriage, as it discloses important accrets, which should be known to them particularly.

To those whose health does not permit of an increase of family, it is of special importance.

Here, also, every femalo—the wife—the mother—the one either budding into womanhood, or the other in the decline of years—in whom nature contemplates an important change, can discover the causes, symptoms, and the most efficient remedies, and most certain mode of cure, in every complaint to which her sex is subject.
